

Mr. Mohamed Ali Al Ghamdi

Chief Governance Officer (CGO) - Qatar Charity

Mohammed Ali Al-Ghamdi holds the positions of Chief Governance Officer and Director of the International Cooperation Unit in Qatar Charity.

He brought to the organization substantial expertise in governance and institutional development acquired during his experience working in the Ministry of Awqaf from 1991 to 2004 and then as Director General of Fanar Islamic Cultural Center until 2010.

When Mohamed joined Qatar Charity in 2011, he brought in a new strategic vision in the dynamics of partnerships in the international humanitarian system and led Qatar Charity to being the most strategic partner of UN agencies in the MENA region. During his tenure as Chief Governance Officer, AlGhamdi raised the charity's governance structure and policies to international standards, setting a new standard for charities in the region.

AlGhamdi is currently an active member in various national and international committees, notably in the Doha International Center for Interfaith Dialogue where he has greatly contributed to the international dialogue on peaceful coexistence and social cohesion.
