

Mr. Sabir Said Rashid Al-Harbi

Director General – GCC-Stat

Mr. Sabir Said Rashed Al-Harbi is the Founder and Director General of the Gulf Cooperation Council Statistical Center (GCC-Stat). He obtained his Master Degree in Economic Development and Policy Analysis from Nottingham University UK. He was honoured in October 2010 by the ESCWA for his international and local contributions.

Before joining the GCC-Stat, Mr Al Harbi occupied many senior posts, such as:

Director General of the Economic Statistics, National Center of Statistics and information, Sultanate of Oman.

Multisector statistics Advisor at METAC (IMF), Beirut, Lebanon.

Member of the board of Directors of the Development Bank of Oman.

Member of the board of Directors of the Omani Company for Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG).

Chairman of the executive board for the International Comparisons Project/ESCWA, Beirut.

Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the Arab Institute for Training & Research in Statistics/ Jordan (2012), and member of the Board of Trustees.

During his work with the National Center of Statistics and information (Sultanate of Oman) and METAC, he was responsible for technical consulting programs, training and technical support department in the field of statistics for the statistical agencies, central banks and ministries of finance of 14 Middle East countries and provided direct consulting to those countries.