

Dr. Khalid Ali Al-Quradaghi

Director of Information Systems and Advisor at the President's Office
Planning and Statistics Authority
State of Qatar

- For more than 12 years during his tenure at Qatar Foundation, Dr. Khalid led many pioneering technological projects and scientific initiatives in the field of information and knowledge systems locally and internationally.
- He obtained the "Advanced Certificate for Executives in Management, Innovation, and Technology" the highest executive education certificate from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), USA.
- He led a unique project at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) as a visiting scholar and executive director of the Science, Technology and Innovation (STI) Project.
- For several years, he managed strategic national projects to strengthen human capacities in Qatar in his capacity as Director of scientific funding programs that include IT and digitalization sector at Qatar National Research Fund (QNRF), member of QF.
- Dr. Khalid obtained Ph.D. degree from the United Kingdom. The most important topics and projects of interest include IT and Digitization, Data and Knowledge Systems Management, E-government Solutions, Strategic Planning and Effective Leadership, R&D and Innovation Programs.