

Dr. S. Duygu Sever-Mehmetođlu

is a Post-Doctoral Researcher at Hamad Bin Khalifa University, Doha. She holds a PhD in Political Science and International Relations from Koç University, İstanbul. She has formerly worked for IFRI (Institut Français des Relations Internationales), Center for Energy in Paris as a Visiting Researcher. She has also worked for EU Horizon 2020 Project: FEUTURE (The Future of EU-Turkey Relations: Mapping Dynamics and Testing Scenarios) for Energy and Climate Drivers.

Her research agenda addresses energy transition, sustainable development and energy policy making, at the nexus of climate change, geopolitics and international relations. Duygu has numerous book chapters and articles on topics such as energy security, natural gas, energy transition in MENA region, human security and sustainability, as well as policy briefs and reports published by major think tanks and research institutions including IFRI, ISPI and Global Relations Forum. Moreover, her dissertation titled as “The Domestic and Global Context of Energy Preferences: Explaining the Choice for the Nuclear”, seeks to explain the complex dynamics which constitute pushing and constraining factors for a country’s decision to engage in nuclear energy generation. Currently, she also focuses on Sustainable Development Goals Education in Qatar, as part of a QNRF funded cluster project at HBKU.

Along with her academic activities and publications, Duygu has also been a delegate in major platforms including Next Generation Delegates by Chicago Council on Global Affairs, Women in Energy, Young Leaders in Energy Initiative, Likeminds: German-Turkish Junior Expert Initiative by Robert Bosch Stiftung, and Young Academics Program by Global Relations Forum. She has received numerous scholarships and awards including Young Visiting Researcher Fellowship by the Embassy of France, Koç University Fellowship for Outstanding Success, TÜBİTAK (Technological and Research Council of Turkey) Scholarship, KUTEM 2020 Best Energy Paper of the Year Award and Koç University 2021 Academic Excellence Award.

Linkedin: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/duygu-sever-mehmetoglu/>