

Nicola Shearman

Nikki Shearman is currently an assistant deputy director in the Central Policy Secretariat of the UK Statistics Authority, with responsibility for International Relations. Previously she was head of the ONS legal team and for 15 years has played a leading role in the development of the UK's statistical legal framework. She is also the chair of the UNECE taskforce on Modernising Statistical Legislation.