

Amira Al Salhi

She holds a bachelor's degree in Statistics and Computer Science from Sultan Qaboos University, 2013.

Currently, she works as a Statistician in the Geographical, Environmental, Tourism and Energy Statistics Division at GCC Statistical Center (GCC-Stat) since 2018.

Previously, she joined the Planning and Statistics Department at the Civil Service Employees Pension Fund (CSEPF) in the Sultanate of Oman during the period 2014-2018.

She took part in several working papers in international conferences, the last of which was entitled "The Impact of COVID-19 on the Tourism Sector in GCC Countries" at the World Statistics Congress 2021.

She supervised the preparation of a number of e-platforms, most notably the GCC Tourism Statistics Platform.