

BIOGRAPHY

Ahmad Hussein, Ph.D.

Dr. Hussein is an official statistics expert at the Ministry of Development planning and Statistics, state of Qatar. He is advising on various aspects of official statistics, and he is currently focusing on the modernization of official statistics in support of the Sustainable Development Agenda 2030. During his tenure as Director of the Statistics Division of the UN-ESCWA he formulated and supervised the implementation of the strategic frameworks of Official Statistics. Over 35 years of experience in a number of countries mainly in the Arab region Mr. Hussein holds a Ph.D. in Demography and statistics from the University of Warsaw, Poland. He organized and participated in many international and national meetings and workshops. During his work with UN-ESCWA, he participated in developing many manuals and guidelines in official statistics at the international level. He published a number of papers and provided advisory services to many Arab member countries. Additionally, Mr. Hussein is a member of many International Statistical Associations