

Dr. Atilla Karaman

Short Bio:

Dr. Atilla Karaman is a Researcher at the Statistics and Information Department of the Statistical, Economic and Social Research and Training Centre for Islamic Countries (SESRIC), a subsidiary organ of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC).

He received his BA in Banking and Finance from Bilkent University, Ankara-Turkey in 2001, his MBA in Financial Management from Hochschule Coburg, Germany in 2004 and his PhD in Operations Research from the Defence Sciences Institute of Turkish Military Academy, Ankara-Turkey with his dissertation titled “Base Reference Fuzzy Alpha Discounting Method and an Empirical Application” in 2015.

He joined the SESRIC in April 2007 after working in the management consultancy, finance, audit, and economic research sectors in Turkey and Germany. Currently directly reporting to the Director of Statistics and Information Department of SESRIC about the planning and implementation of the Statistical Capacity Building (StatCaB) Programme and managerial and strategic issues of official statistics including Sustainable Development Goals at the OIC level, Dr. Karaman also has active research on statistical capacity and multi-criteria decision making.

He can be contacted at akaraman \(at\) sesric \(dot\) org.