

Farah Choucair

Project Manager of the Arab Development Portal
Social Cohesion Specialist and Project Coordinator
Regional Programme at Regional Bureau for Arab States, UNDP

Farah Choucair is an economist by training with more than 10 years of progressive experience conducting solid economic and statistical research in political economy, economic and social reforms, macro-fiscal policy, poverty, employment and inclusive development. She is one of the co-founders of the Arab Development Portal and has been leading it since May 2013. Among other things, her focus at UNDP includes developing projects and initiatives on open data, SDGs and social cohesion with national, regional and global partners.