

Mr. Nader Keyrouz

NADER KEYROUZ is the Regional Labour Statistician of ILO Regional Office for Arab States and member of the ILO Global Technical Team of Statisticians.

Nader has more than 20 years' experience in designing and implementing surveys and censuses, developing statistical data portals. He taught basic and multidimensional statistics, and macroeconomics at the Lebanese American University (LAU), Université Saint Esprit, and Lebanese University.

Nader worked as a statistical advisor for various agencies such as the IMF, UNDP, FAO, GIZ, and Monitor-Deloitte in Arab States, Africa, and South Asia. Nader also served as acting head of the department of production sector statistics at the Lebanese Central Administration of Statistics (CAS) for 12 years. He holds a higher diploma in statistics from ENSAI-France and a DEA in Monetary and Financial Economic from Rennes I University—France.