

Dr. Sharifa Al Emadi

Executive Director of Community and International Relations Department, and Clinical Psychotherapist at Naufar (2017-2018)

Member of the Behavioral Health Support Center

Member of the Board of Directors of the Tobacco Control Center

Member of the United Nations (non-governmental) Addiction Treatment Group.

Holder of a Masters and PhD in Marriage and Family Counseling from Manchester Metropolitan University, UK.

Platinum Scientific Excellence Award; PhD Category 2009

Provided several training courses and workshops in the field of psycho-social therapy, combating addiction and prevention of behavioral deviations inside and outside Qatar.

Presented working papers at several international conferences

Participated in and published several studies and research in international journals.